1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The purpose of this policy is to outline the approach of the Company in dealing with Complaints received from members and prospective members.

1.2 SCOPE/FIELD/APPLICATION

This policy applies to all employees of the Company, with specific reference to those employees in the Complaints department. To ensure widespread understanding, staff shall be thoroughly aware of the principles set out in this document.

1.3 AVAILABILITY

The document is readily available to all employees and managers and all these stakeholders shall be appropriately and adequately informed of its provisions. Access to internal procedures, documentation and policies is available to external stakeholders on request.

1.4 RESPONSIBILITY AND AUTHORITY

The Compliance Department will be the custodian of the policy. Required changes and amendments must be channelled through the Head of Compliance for review and will be submitted to the Board of Directors for approval.

2. POLICY

2.1 COMPLAINT CATEGORISATIONS

Complaints are differentiated to ensure that the appropriate attention is given to complaints depending on their nature. Complaints are categorised in accordance with the following minimum categories: -

- a) complaints relating to the design of the policy or related service, including the premiums or other fees or charges related to that policy or service;
- b) complaints relating to information provided to policyholders;
- c) complaints relating to advice;
- d) complaints relating to policy performance;
- e) complaints relating to service of policyholders, including complaints relating to premium collection or lapsing of policies;
- f) complaints relating to policy accessibility, changes or switches;
- g) complaints relating to complaints handling;
- h) complaints relating to insurance risk claims, including non-payment of claims; and
- i) other complaints.

2.1.1 WHAT CONSTITUTES A COMPLAINT

The Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 37 of 2002 defines a Complaint as a Complaint relating to a financial service rendered by an FSP or its representatives to a member or prospective member on or after the date of commencement of the FAIS Act, and in which it is alleged that the provider or its representative has –

- (a) the financial institution or its service provider has contravened or failed to comply with an agreement, a law, a rule, or a code of conduct which is binding on the financial institution or to which it subscribes;
- (b) the financial institution or its service provider's maladministration or wilful or negligent action or failure to act, has caused the complainant harm, prejudice, distress or substantial inconvenience;

- (c) the financial institution or its service provider has treated the complainant unfairly and regardless of whether such an expression of dissatisfaction is submitted together with or in relation to a customer query.

2.2 WHAT CONSTITUTES OTHER COMPLAINTS

As an authorised financial services provider, the FSP is committed to rendering services honestly, fairly, with due skill and it is for this reason that other complaints by members are recorded and tracked for quality control purposes.

The following are examples of other complaints:

- (a) unjustified or invalid complaints;
- (b) non-member complaints;
- (c) service provider complaints.

2.3 LODGING A COMPLAINT

Any member that has experienced any of the categories of complaints mentioned above in 2.1 by the FSP may lodge a complaint in writing or verbally.

2.3.1 COMPLAINTS ESCALATION AND REVIEW PROCESS

The complaints escalation and review process should: -

- (a) follow a balanced approach, bearing in mind the legitimate interests of all parties involved including the fair treatment of the complainants;
- (b) provide for escalation of complex or unusual complaints at the instance of the initial complaint handler;
- (c) provide for complainants to escalate complaints not resolved to their satisfaction;
- (d) be allocated to impartial, senior functionary within the Company or appointed by the Company for managing the escalation and review process.

2.3.2 WHERE TO SUBMIT A COMPLAINT

Complaints may be submitted as follows: -

by email;

by fax;

via the website;

via social media (Facebook, Google reviews, Hello Peter);

or telephonically;

Any complaints received by employees should be forwarded to the Complaints Department. This can either be done electronically or telephonically.

Any complaints received from legal entities representing dissatisfied members or the Ombudsman Council should be relayed to the Complaints Department without delay.

A central email address (complaints@irdsa.co.za) is used to communicate with all members that have lodged a complaint.

2.3.3 BASIC PRINCIPLES OF THE COMPLAINTS RESOLUTION SYSTEM

IRDSA is committed to maintain an internal complaint resolution system and procedures based on the following:

- (a) Maintenance of a comprehensive complaints policy that outlines the company's commitment to, and system and procedures for, internal resolution of complaints;
- (b) Transparency and visibility: ensuring that members have full knowledge of the procedures for resolution of their complaints;
- (c) Accessibility of facilities: ensuring the existence of easy access to such procedures at any office or branch of the provider open to members, or through ancillary postal, fax, telephone, or electronic helpdesk support; and
- (d) Fairness: ensuring that a resolution of a complaint can during and by means of the resolution process be effected which is fair to both members and the company and its employees.

2.4 STANDARDS FOR COMPLAINTS RECORD KEEPING

To ensure effective complaints monitoring and analysis, complaints need to be accurately, efficiently, and securely recorded. Complaints recorded include: -

- (a) all relevant details of a complainant and the subject matter of the complaint;
- (b) copies of all relevant evidence, correspondence, and decisions;
- (c) the complaint categorisation as set out in 2.1;
- (d) progress and status of complaints, including whether such progress is within or outside the prescribed timeline.

The following data in relation to complaints need to be recorded on an ongoing basis:

- (a) number of complaints received, upheld, rejected and reason for rejection;
- (b) number of complaints escalated by complainants using the internal complaint's escalation process;
- (c) number of complaints referred to the Regulators (Ombud) and their outcome;
- (d) total number of complaints outstanding.

Record of complaints shall be appropriately maintained for a period of five years and regular reporting to senior management will be carried out.

2.5 APPEALS

A complainant that is aggrieved at the outcome of a complaint is entitled to appeal the decision of the company. Complainants will be advised of this right when the outcome of a complaint is communicated.

Internal appeals against a decision may be lodged, in writing, and will be assessed by the Complaints Manager who will provide outcome to the complainant, within two weeks of receipt of the appeal.

The complainant will also be advised of further steps, such as the right to refer the dispute to the Regulator, for further review.

2.6 UPHELD AND REJECTED COMPLAINTS

Where a complaint is upheld, any commitment to take any other action must be carried out without undue delay and within any agreed timeframes.

Where a complaint is rejected, the complainant must be provided with clear and adequate reasons for the decision and must be informed of any applicable escalation or review processes, including how to use them and any relevant time limits. The member may within six months pursue the Regulator with the complaint, whose details are as follows:

2.7 EMPLOYEE TRAINING

The Company undertakes to –

- (a) ensure that adequate training is provided to all relevant employees, ensuring full knowledge of the FAIS Act and TCF Outcomes regarding resolution of complaints;
- (b) have an appropriate combination of experience, knowledge and skills in complaints handling, fair treatment of members, the subject matter of the complaints concerned and relevant legal and regulatory matters;
- (c) not be subject to conflict of interest;
- (d) be adequately empowered to make impartial decisions or recommendations;
- (e) ensure that employees are aware of provisions for the escalation of reportable complaints; and
- (f) ensure that employees are made aware of the contents of this policy as well as its effect and purpose.

2.8 COMMUNICATION TO THE REGULATOR RELATING TO COMPLAINTS

When the Company has received a complaint from a complainant via the Regulator the following is to be conducted:

- (a) acknowledge receipt of complaint from the Regulator;
- (b) complaints Manager to allocate complaint to a relevant Complaints Officer;
- (c) complaints Officer to communicate with the Complainant and resolve complaint;
- (d) feedback of the outcome to be provided to the Regulator.

The Company will ensure the following when communicating with the Regulator:

- (a) maintain open and honest communication and co-operation between itself and the Regulator; and
- (b) endeavour to resolve a complaint before a final determination or ruling is made by the Regulator, or through its internal escalation process, without impeding or unduly delaying a complainant's access to the Regulator.

3. DEFINITIONS, ACRONYMS, ABBREVIATIONS AND TERMS
